

Auvance's Policy Content & Service

1. Web Development

Websites developed by us will adhere to content restrictions, ensuring that there are no images of women, references to drugs, alcohol, or musical content. Products or services promoting these elements will not be accepted. Guidelines are in place due to our religious values and ethical standards. Additionally, the use of assets will be evaluated (e.g., fonts). If licensing is not achieved, we will alternatively use other appropriate assets.

2. Video Editing

Video content edited by us will adhere to content restrictions, ensuring that the content does not include women, references to drugs, alcohol, or musical content/background music. Any such references are not accepted. Guidelines are in place due to our religious values and ethical standards. Per our audio policy, videos edited by us will be exported without music tracks. Clients are encouraged to provide alternative audio that aligns with the guidelines, such as voiceovers or ambient sounds.

3. Graphic Designing

Graphics designed by us will adhere to design restrictions, ensuring that the designs do not promote women, drugs, alcohol, or music (including music albums). Any asset or piece of graphic content including these elements will not be accepted. Guidelines are in place due to our religious values and ethical standards. Additionally, the use of assets will be evaluated (e.g., fonts). If licensing is not achieved, we will alternatively use other appropriate assets.

Important Notice

We understand that our content and service policies may be viewed as extreme or discriminatory by many. However, these guidelines are strictly for religious reasons. As Muslims, we believe that our earnings must be halal (permissible) and engaging in activities that go against our faith results in haram (forbidden) income and bad deeds.

› Prohibition of Viewing Women ‹

We adhere to the teaching that we should not look at women outside of our immediate family.

› Prohibition of Drugs & Alcohol ‹

Both Drugs & Alcohol are harmful and strictly prohibited in Islam.

› Prohibition of Music ‹

Music is prohibited in the Quran, and we are committed to following these teachings.

We appreciate your understanding and respect for our values and principles.
